MARCH, 2004

45 members and guests attended the club video night and February meeting on Saturday, February 7, 2004. Subs and pizza were provided by the club, and members brought an extensive array of side dishes and yummy desserts. Petie Eavers provided soft drinks and ice. Guy Eavers won the 50/50 drawing, and donated his half to the club.

Elaine Cummins has contacted Queensboro about changing the model of Corvette in the club logo, so that all members will be able to order their clothing with their model Vette in the Blue Ridge logo. There is a one-time set-up fee of $25.00 per logo change. Jim Carver also gave information about a custom embroidery service he found in an area mall.

Members are reminded to continue to bring non-perishable food contributions for the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank to regular meetings.

On April 18th, the club will tour the Parkway Corvette Collection in Christiansburg, followed by dinner at the Pink Cadillac diner in Lexington. Travel details will be announced in the next newsletter.

A return trip is planned to the Peaks of Otter for an overnight on May 1st. Make your room reservation by calling 1-800-542-

5927. Be sure to say that you are coming with Blue Ridge Corvette Club. The in-season rate of $86.00 will apply. 25 non-smoking rooms are being held for us. (If you need a smoking room, be sure to tell the reservation person when you call – they will try to put you near the group) It is important to make your reservation as soon as possible. Rooms not taken by March 26 must be released. If you reserve a room and later find that you cannot go, you may cancel until April 30th with no charge. Dinner seating will be by couples, or in groups of 2 or 3 couples. You may go to dinner at whatever time you wish, and order directly from the menu. You can get detailed information about the Peaks of Otter resort at www.peaksotter.com
